Hyper Effects has produced best in class websites and digital marketing campaigns consistent with their clients.

HANSVILLE, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, August 1, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Hansville is an unincorporated community and census-designated place (CDP) in Kitsap County, Washington, United States. Its population was 3,858 as of the 2020 census. The coastal community is located at the northern end of the Kitsap Peninsula and is about 16 miles (26 km) northeast of Poulsbo, the nearest city. The first regular residents of Hansville were the lightkeepers of the Point No Point Light, which was constructed in 1879. In 1893 a Norwegian fisherman, the community's first permanent settler not affiliated with the lighthouse, came to the area.

He was soon followed by other Norwegian emigres, including Hans Zachariasen, for whom Hansville was ultimately named.

Water in Hansville is provided by Kitsap Public Utilities, a special government entity whose boundaries are parallel to those of Kitsap County.
