The Authentic Gay Man Podcast provides a safe platform for LGBTQ men to tell their story and speak their truth so they can be seen, heard, and valued.”

Coach Maddox

Maddox, is challenging the stereotypical roles of queer men with The Authentic Gay Man Podcast. Developed to help homosexual males become their most authentic selves, the highly interesting podcast creates a safe space for queer men to speak their truth and be seen, heard, and valued.

Although the world is becoming more accepting of the homosexual community, a lot of people still live in the shadows and are denying or hiding their sexual desires to blend in with everyone else. While pretending to be heterosexual might help queer folks avoid the judgment and stigmatization that accompanies being queer, it however creates a deeper identity problem within the individual that has driven many over the edge.

Through his podcast, Coach Maddox is helping queer men find their most authentic self and break free of the isolation and loneliness that continue to frustrate the lives of gay people. The seasoned content creator and behavioral expert shares steps and strategies that queer men can adopt to get real with themselves and create deep meaningful friendships.

“If you have ever felt like you were on the outside looking in, you’re not alone,” says Coach Maddox. “It’s a common theme among queer men. And that’s why we are challenging the stereotypical roles of queer men, to help them create deeper connections with their queer brothers by showing up more authentically and vulnerably.”

By emphasizing the need for authenticity, vulnerability, and emotional intimacy, The Authentic Gay Man Podcast is dismantling the false blanket of heterosexual conformity, allowing queer men to experience a profound sense of belonging and community. Each episode of the podcast is filled with raw, candid, and uncensored conversations about the challenges of being an authentic gay man in today's society.

Guests of the podcast, sit down with Coach Maddox to share their vulnerable stories in hopes that it will inspire and encourage others to unpack and reevaluate the shallow definition of masculinity, that is robbing many men of joy and happiness. From his over 40 years of experience in providing personal services to clients as a beauty professional, Coach Maddox has been able to cultivate sterling effective listening and communication skills that allow him to expertly lead conversations and dive deep into the most important topics.

The compassionate host of The Authentic Gay Men Podcast possesses several coaching certifications and has devoted his life to personal growth and sharing his wisdom with others.
