

Adeptus Partners, LLC Enhances Royalty Audit and Contract Compliance Practice with Hire of Sam Platt

Leading accounting, advisory, and business management firm expands their focus on royalty and contract compliance and the protection of brands and trademarks.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Adeptus Partners, LLC, a solutions-based public accounting firm serving individuals and businesses for over three decades, has been building its royalty audit and contract compliance practice and today announced the hiring of experienced royalty auditor, Sam Platt, to expand the firm's trademark and brand niche.

Platt joins Adeptus Partners' Royalty Audit and Contract Compliance Group as Manager, where he will play the crucial role of recovering underpaid royalties and other amounts due Adeptus clients while protecting their underlying intellectual property.

Platt has over a decade of accounting experience across industries and functions, specializing in conducting royalty and contract compliance audits. He serviced over 600 collegiate institutions as head of the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) royalty audit division, recovering millions of dollars for them. Sam's experience also includes Anti-Money Laundering consulting and Financial Statement reviews in the Financial Services Industry.

"Sam is a talented royalty auditor with relevant experience and expertise. As the need for our Royalty Audit and Contract Compliance services continues to grow, we are delighted to have Sam join the Adeptus team," said Lewis Stark, Partner at Adeptus and leader of its Royalty Audit and Contract Compliance Group.

Platt states, "I'm very excited about joining the Adeptus family and look forward to my future growth with the firm. With the growth in licensing and licensed products, the complexity of the marketplace, and taking into consideration the value of brands and trademarks, the protection
