KEYPORT, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Keyport is an unincorporated community and census-designated place (CDP) in Kitsap County, Washington, United States.

The community is located at the eastern terminus of State Route 308 on the Kitsap Peninsula. As of the 2010 census, the Keyport CDP had a total population of 554. Keyport was named for Keyport, New Jersey, in 1896. Its nickname is "Torpedo Town USA". Situated on a small peninsula jutting into Liberty Bay near Poulsbo.

It is the home of a small United States Navy depot tasked with ranging and repairing torpedoes for the US Navy and allies. Keyport's only church, Keyport Bible Church, was established in the early 1900s and incorporated in 1926. The church's building was dedicated on May 2, 1937, and has since added a number of classrooms and a multipurpose building.
