biotechnology leader in skin care and scalp rejuvenation cosmeceuticals, today announced the expansion of its distribution territory into the United Kingdom with UK-based medical and cosmetic treatment device company MedSpa Equip UK.

The strategic partnership between ReGen Factor and MedSpa Equip UK, not only increases the geographical distribution network of PepFactor, ReGen Factor’s flagship product, but it allows for device and product sales packages to be tailored toward the expanding skincare and hair rejuvenation markets within the UK. MedSpa Equip UK will introduce the PepFactor Skin and PepFactor Scalp cosmeceutical product range into the United Kingdom in combination with MedSpa Equip UK’s medical and aesthetic device range.

Together, ReGen Factor and MedSpa Equip UK will work to expand the reach of the PepFactor Skin and Scalp range into the UK via a select number of exclusive vetted and approved med spa and beauty salons throughout the UK. "ReGen Factor is pleased with the fast-paced growth of the PepFactor Skin and PepFactor Scalp treatments in the US, Middle East and Europe. PepFactor delivers visible and reliable treatment results quickly, making PepFactor the go-to treatment for skin and scalp treatments in some of the world’s most exclusive med spas”. "We are very excited and fortunate to now have this opportunity to serve the British market. We are ready to go to work, which begins by identifying where our offerings will best serve the needs of so many respected aesthetic service providers throughout this market," said Stephen Blignaut, President & CEO, ReGen Factor Pty Ltd.

Tahli Fitzpatrick, of International Communications at ReGen Factor added, "The MedSpa Equip

UK team has always been a valued business partner and we are excited about the synergies and opportunities created due to expansion into the UK. As we continue our relationship with the MedSpa Equip UK team, the most significant beneficiary of this expansion will be the PepFactor providers, with expanded treatment solutions that will help them strengthen their focus on improving client satisfaction". "We are excited to have secured the exclusive distribution of the PepFactor cosmeceutical range in the UK and we are looking forward to appointing top-tier medical and aesthetic professionals as PepFactor providers throughout the UK" said MedSpa Equip UK's Chris Sinden.
