

GPS Moving thrives to Be the Number 1 Long Distance Moving Company in San Diego

GPS Moving & Storage, a long-distance full-service moving company in the region, continues to assert its position as the top notch long-distance moving company

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, USA, August 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GPS Moving & Storage, a long-distance full-service moving company in the region, continues to assert its position as the top notch long-distance moving company in San Diego.

"Moving long distance or out of state is a specialized service that only the best in the trade can offer with utmost satisfaction," said the GPS Moving relocations coordinator, Don. "We have been in this business for over two decades now. And that is why we can make such a bold claim; that we are the best in the region. When GPS Moving was founded over 20 years ago, our core motivation was to rebuild diligence, honesty, and customer satisfaction in the long-distance moving industry. I dare say we have done a pretty good job if our customer reviews are anything to go by."

San Diego has many moving companies that move folks long distances across the country. However, GPS Moving and Storage are taking the claim as one of the top companies seriously based on a few factors. For starters, this is a locally owned and operated company, a point that makes it more trustworthy and more easily approachable.

This moving company also offers a wide array of moving services tailored towards giving customers a stress-free move, according to Veronica, a customer service representative. They provide moving consultation services also and treat every customer as they would any paying customer. Their moving estimates are also quite affordable and accurate.

Many San Diego long-distance moving companies find themselves short-handed, especially during the busy moving season. But not GPS Moving. This company has much moving personnel, a fleet of moving trucks, and moving storage to cater to the busy moving season. Additionally, the company provides every moving service that you can think of, from “hauling only” to “full-service moves” and “specialty moves.”

Indeed, they are a major player in the moving industry in San Diego.

Whether you are looking to move long distance soon or are looking for out-of-state movers, GPS Moving aims to provide every service that you require. If you want to find out more about their services in San Diego, you may visit their official website by clicking on the link provided below.
