

U.K.ABROAD Says They Can Beat Passport Delays as British Expats are Urged to Check Passport Validity

MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA, August 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- British expats have been urged to check their passport validity as Her Majesty's Passport Office experiences delays.

With COVID travel restrictions now largely lifted, there has been a surge in British travellers heading abroad, particularly to Europe for the northern hemisphere summer. This has led to longer wait times to process travel documents.

Here is what one of their thousands of satisfied customers had to say about their experience:

"I had been struggling for some months to renew my British Passport, largely because the online site provided by the UK government is unclear and confusing about what documents I needed to supply. I found U.K.ABROAD on the internet and from the very start the whole process was made easy. It was clear what was required and the whole process was efficient. The staff gave me constant feedback throughout the whole process, and I now have my new passport. Well worth the cost and I will certainly use them again, and recommend them to my friends" - Michael Meredith via Google Reviews.
