

Signature TC Switches to Transaction Workflow Software to Create Custom Templates for Clients

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, August 4, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Signature TC offers high-tech transaction coordinator services with the help of a robust transaction workflow software tool that makes real estate transaction management a cakewalk.

Signature TC recently announced about its new transaction workflow tool that is supposed to make things better for real estate clients by helping them save time. The company is already a preferred choice among realtors looking for a certified transaction coordinator. With this announcement, the company is expected to reach new heights by attracting more real estate businesses and making their transactions simpler and more manageable than ever.

Signature TC is a licensed transaction coordinator offering dependable real estate TC services in Los Angeles to save the time that clients would otherwise spend on paperwork. The company's vision is to help realtors focus on what matters the most for their business. As a real estate TC firm, the team makes all the effort to keep things going along with the entire transaction without a hassle.

"We are ahead of the curve," says the owner of the company, Anna Petlevaya. "We use transaction workflow software which allows us to create custom templates that fit our clients' needs. One of the features my clients love is that once we read the contract and prepare the calendar, we set up a new file for them in the system where we add all the important deadlines, and these dates sync with the clients' calendars so they get reminders for each of those dates which are crucial for a real estate transaction. In the near future we are going to migrate to an even better version of the current software - called Open to Close, which will expand the range of high-tech features available to our clients and will make the transaction process for real estate agents we service even smoother and faster."

The real estate transaction coordinator by Signature TC are designed to make things less complex for clients. With the new software, the team is looking forward to enhance client experience further by using technology to make transactions faster. The best part is that the company keeps everything virtual so that the clients can access anything they need from anywhere in the world without having to wait for someone from the team to connect with them.

Signature TC has always been instrumental in assisting real estate businesses in California to inch closer to their goals more rapidly without breaking the bank with its high-tech transaction coordinator services.
