DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, August 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prince Holding Group has been recognized by International Business Magazine, a Dubai-based publication, as the Best Real Estate Development Company in Cambodia.

The award reflects the Group's efforts in building resilience while navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 outbreak last year. One of the significant developments was the launch of sustainable development masterplan for its Ream coastline of Sihanoukville project.

With the increasing need for quality urban real estate, we are proud to have laid the foundation for a strong real estate footprint that will serve a growing Cambodia well.”

“On behalf of our 4,500-strong workforce, many of whom work in various real estate operations, we are honored to receive this recognition as we continue our efforts to develop urban centres, enhance cultural tourism, expand our portfolio of prime hotels, resorts, and supermarkets,” said Gabriel Tan, Chief Communications Officer of Prince Holding Group. “With the increasing need for quality urban real estate, we are proud to have laid the foundation for a strong real estate footprint that will serve a growing Cambodia well.”

The award is the 5th real estate-related award won by the Group's real estate units this year showcasing their rising profile. Its units are currently working on Prince International Plaza and a coastal development project in Ream Bay, and Prince Happiness Plaza, which was recognized by PropertyGuru, a real estate platform, as Cambodia's Best Mixed-Use Development last year. In the past twelve months, real estate units have
