

Mathilde Guerrero Invited to Produce a Show at the Festival d'Avignon

Guerrero, who has danced with powerhouse performers such as Cardi B, will return to her city of birth for the world-famous festival in 2023

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mathilde Guerrero – the French-born professional dancer who has performed for prestigious artists and organizations, internationally – is proud to announce that she has accepted an invitation to produce a show at the Festival d'Avignon (Avignon Festival) in 2023.

Avignon's "Off" Festival is a world-leading showcase of contemporary performing arts, supported by enthusiastic and ever-changing audiences. For Mathilde the invitation is an honor, not only as it offers the opportunity to share her talent at such a prestigious event, but also as she will be dancing in her hometown for the first time since moving to the US.

The opportunity comes at a time when Guerrero's career is meteoric and her international presence is growing fast. Soon after moving to New York City, Guerrero was dancing for a Vogue Magazine alongside Cardi B. Since then, she has worked all over the world and with world-class choreographers including Ebony Williams, Avihai Haham, Caroline Torti.

"Mathilde is a force to be reckoned with, and an avant-garde artist," commented Gabriel Alvarez, General Manager of Emphasis Entertainments, a leading dance agency in New York. "Despite her young age, she has proved that she deserves to be considered a leader of the dance industry. Her work ethic, dedication, creativity and artistry are one of a kind."
