TempStars Helps Dental Hygienists and Assistants Earn More Than $12 Million

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TempStars, North America's largest and most respected dental temping and hiring service, announced today that it has surpassed $12 million in earnings to hygienists and dental assistants in North America since the company was founded in 2015.

Before TempStars, the opportunities for dental professionals were very limited. TempStars delivers dozens, if not hundreds, of temporary employment opportunities right to my desktop or phone."

Courtney Briggs, Dental Assistant

"We're very proud of exceeding this milestone as it means we have been helping dental professionals support themselves and their families, while also empowering them in their professional lives," said Dr. James Younger, the CEO and founder of TempStars.

Dr. Younger attributed some of the company's success to TempStars' integrated invoicing system, which "makes it fast and easy for dental professionals to get paid."

Of course, hygienists and dental assistants have also embraced TempStars because "it makes it easy to book temping shifts without hassle, giving them the freedom to set their hourly rates and pick their shifts," said Dr. Younger. "With TempStars technology, dental professionals can eliminate awkward negotiations or any pressure from an agency."

In total, more than 16,000 dental hygienists and assistants have earned professional income through dental temping shifts with TempStars.

One of those professionals, who has benefitted from the company's success is Courtney Briggs, a Dental Assistant in Innisfil, Ontario.

"Before TempStars, the opportunities for dental professionals were very limited," said Briggs. "We had so few choices. What TempStars has done is delivered dozens, if not hundreds, of temp employment opportunities right to my desktop or phone."

TempStars is also rapidly expanding those opportunities in the U.S., where it has set up offices in Boston, Chicago, Nashville, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Phoenix-Scottsdale.
