About followHIM Podcast

Steve and Shannon Sorensen created the followHIM podcast to help their children and grandchildren understand and live the gospel more fully. They asked their friend Hank Smith to host the podcast and head up a team of experts to make guest appearances. Hank invited long time friend John Bytheway to assist with the hosting and within a matter of two weeks the podcast went live in December 2020. Since then, listeners across the globe have steadily increased, making followHIM one of the most popular Christian podcasts. "We have been pleasantly surprised and humbled at the success of the podcast, and are thrilled that it's making a difference for Christians across the globe." -Shannon Sorenson

In its 229-episode span, Hank Smith and John Bytheway have hosted interviews with experts to make studying for the "Come, Follow Me" course not only enjoyable, but original and educational. They discuss various topics, including living the gospel, the scriptures, and the power of faith.
