We also provide education clinics on the principles of cognitive behavioral therapy for a better understanding of "food versus metabolic rate" when addressing weight management.

Detoxification of heavy metals, free radicals, and other toxins is an integral part of overall health as well as weight management and essential aids in "resetting" the body as you introduce healthier eating and lifestyle habits.

Some benefits of detox include the elimination of toxins, digestive & metabolic support, reducing inflammation, healthy skin, strengthened immune system and improved mental and emotional health.

LUZwave Palm Desert and Liquid Gold Plasma offer several options for detox, including chelation therapy and detox through nutritional & herbal supplements.

- Liver Cleanse (herbal extracts)
- Chelation Therapy (detox of mineral build-up and heavy metals in the bloodstream)
- Metabolic Homeostasis (Use of PhotoMedicine realigns digestive health)
- Acu-Herbalism to treat obesity
