Hyper Effects is a web design and development Company and B2B marketing agency that thrives on helping people achieve and succeed in their desired goals.

SOUTHWIRTH, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, August 9, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Southwirth is an unincorporated community and census-designated place (CDP) on

Puget Sound in Kitsap County, Washington, United States. It is best known for being the west end of the Fauntleroy-Vashon Island-Southwirth Washington State Ferries run. Landmarks include Southwirth Grocery, a US Post Office, ferry terminal, clay cliffs and a private beach on the point.

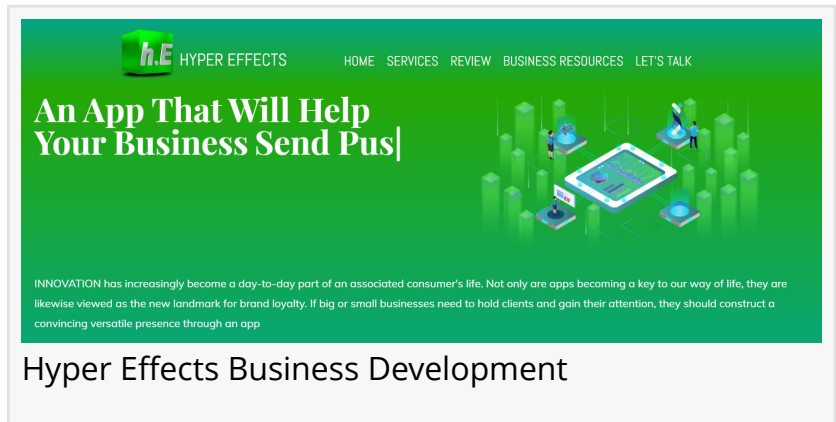

Next to the ferry is a popular place to launch kayaks for trips to nearby Blake Island. The population of the Southwirth CDP was 2,185 at the 2010 census. Southwirth is in southeastern Kitsap County on the shore of Puget Sound, with the CDP limits extending southwest from Point Southwirth 0.5 miles (0.80 km) along Colvos Passage and northwest from Point Southwirth 2.5 miles (4.0 km) to Yukon Harbor.
