

JEFERY LEVY ANNOUNCES NEW SERIES "BLUES TRAVELER" TO STAR NASHVILLE BLUES VIRTUOSO JUSTIN JOHNSON

In "Blues Traveler" Nashville Blues legend Justin Johnson travels the world, playing and recording with famous musicians in every country.

LOS ANGELES, CA, U.S.A., August 10, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In "Blues Traveler" Nashville Blues legend Justin Johnson travels the world, playing and recording with famous musicians in every country. It is like "No Reservations" but with Music instead of food. The theme is: Music Is The Universal Language that can bring the world together. In each episode, Justin arrives in foreign city (or American city) hooks up with one or two or three famous players from that culture. They discuss music while noodling around/jamming. Next Justin explores some local acts with his new friends. They begin to write a song together.

Justin and his local friends record the song they have written together. A little dinner and jam to celebrate the recording.

Justin and his friends play a show in which we see/hear them play the song they have recorded
Wrap up sequence -- Justin revisiting his adventures in the city with Narration of his shared experience, reinforcing our theme that MUSIC is the universal language with the power to bring the world together
