Video Education for Foot & Ankle Professionals

"Foot Innovate is an innovative leader in educational content for Foot & Ankle professionals," said Mike Donoghue, CEO of ConveyMED. "Our vision is to elevate medical podcasts as an educational medium, and the Foot Innovate library of videos and educational resources is a major addition for Foot & Ankle professionals."

Their podcast platform enables a seamless transition from audio education to our Foot Innovate library of surgical videos. We don't think this is possible with any other podcast platform."

Gregory C. Berlet, MD

"We are pleased to make our content available on the ConveyMED medical podcast App," said Gregory C. Berlet, MD, of Foot Innovate. "Their podcast platform enables a seamless transition from audio education to the full library of Foot Innovate videos. The learner determines the level of engagement. We don't think this is possible with any other podcast platform."

In this partnership, Foot Innovate seeks to expand its audience to medical podcast enthusiasts by providing audio versions of its content and leveraging the ConveyMED capabilities such as accompanying images and links to videos, which are not found on open podcast platforms. ConveyMED will be able to add to its library of exclusive Foot & Ankle educational podcasts and listeners on its platform.
