Founder, Matt Khouri

“We're so stoked for the opportunity to bring our Signature Seafood Boil to National television”, says Khouri. “Our boils are ideal for bringing folks together, and after the last couple of years, I think we all need a little more time spent with friends and family, while enjoying good food too! Our mission at OBBC is to create more than just a meal, but memories with our alternative dining experience. Through our take-out or catered options, one pot with quality ingredients is all you need to enjoy “The Best Pot on the Beach”!

So what exactly is a boil and how does it work?

A Signature Seafood Boil- The Best pot on the Beach

Jumbo shrimp, authentic andouille sausage, red bliss potatoes, corn on the cob and sweet Vidalia onions are layered, seasoned to perfection, and expertly steamed together in a boiling pot of seasoned water. Seafood such as snow crab legs, clams, mussels, scallops and lobster tails can also be added, in addition to local favorites depending on store location. For non-seafood fans, Outer Banks Boil Company also offers pulled pork barbecue, coleslaw, cornbread muffins and key lime pie for dessert.

When cooking is complete, all the yummy goodness is “poured” onto a table fully equipped with a table cloth, plates, forks, knives, and all the other essential utensils and fix-ins for a classic Outer Banks Boil Company signature seafood boil.

In addition to the above catering option, there are two other ways to enjoy an Outer Banks Boil Company signature seafood boil: Takeout and Special Events.

Takeout: Outer Banks Boil Company “Best Pot To-Go” provides customers with the opportunity to experience a signature seafood boil without the full-service catering.□ Prepped and ready to steam in it's own pot, the customer just adds two cups of liquid (beer, wine or water)and steams up a fresh seafood feast right on their own stovetop.

Special Events: From rehearsal dinners and wedding receptions to birthday celebrations, family reunions and corporate events, Outer Banks Boil Company makes any event one to remember.
