

Niagara Institute Launches a New Guide on How To Hold Employees Accountable

Learn how to drive individual, team, and corporate results by holding employees accountable in a truly motivating way in this free guide.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, August 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Niagara Institute, an industry leader in relevant and practical leadership training programs, today announced it is offering a free guide to help leaders drive accountability in their employees. The guide "How to Hold Employees Accountable: A Leader's Guide to Accountability in the Workplace" can be downloaded on their website.

Accountability in the workplace is a challenge many leaders face. The path to getting employees to make a promise and follow through, take responsibility for their actions, own their mistakes, and take initiative can be difficult. Niagara Institute's informative guide acts as a roadmap so leaders can drive accountability in their teams in a way that doesn't feel like punishment but in a way that is truly motivating.

The contents of the guide include:

- >> What is accountability?
- >> What is the difference between responsibility and accountability?
- >> What factors influence accountability?
- >> 6 ways to create a culture of accountability in your team

"Holding employees accountable can be one of the biggest challenges team leaders face," says
