BAY VALLEY TECH AND SALVATION ARMY TO PREPARE YOUTH FOR FUTURE TECH CAREERS

Free After-school Tech Bootcamp Starts on August 25

MODESTO, CALIFORNIA, U. S., August 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bay Valley Tech, a leading code academy, is partnering with The Salvation Army to launch a free web design youth training program for junior high and high school students between ages 11-17 at The Salvation Army's Red Shield Community Center in south Modesto.

The bootcamp will run from August 25, 2022, through January 5, 2023, and will help students learn graphic design, web design and basic coding skills.

"Our goal is to provide an opportunity for students to have fun while learning in-demand skills and to inspire them to help others in the community," stated Maria Arellano, business manager for The Salvation Army Modesto. "We thank Bay Valley Tech for helping students prepare for the careers of tomorrow and for their work to make this program possible."

Phillip Lan, president of Bay Valley Tech, explained that "This free program provides these students a low-barrier pathway to a lucrative career in tech."
