“

Everybody can be great because anybody can serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.”

UGCSI offers a variety of non-traditional Christian ministry certificates and degrees including, but not limited to, pastoral ministry, ambassadorial diplomacy, Christian leadership, biblical counseling, and innovative leadership.

This prestigious institution promotes a culture of honor through the skill/action/philosophy-based Honorary Doctorates in the Humanities, which it awards to highly esteemed individuals who have dedicated their lives to the betterment of humanity.

On Saturday, July 2, during a high-level ceremony held at the Hotel du Fleuve Congo, the delegation of this prestigious institution was honored to award the honorary doctorate degree to HEM Guy Loando Mboyo, Minister of State, Minister of Territorial Development, for his humanitarian and philanthropic actions in the framework of the Widal Foundation.

During the ceremony, Minister Guy Loando delivered an inspiring and exciting speech in which he dedicated this prestigious degree to the Armed Forces of the DRC who spare no effort to preserve the territorial integrity of the country and renewed his commitment to serve humanity.

Guy Loando Mboyo is a Congolese lawyer, politician, an entrepreneur, investor, author and philanthropist.

He has been elected senator for the province of Tshuapa in the Democratic Republic of Congo since 2019 and appointed Minister of State in charge of Land Management and Territorial Development in April 2021.

As a philanthropist, Guy Loando is the Founder of WIDAL FONDATION, an NGO working in the social field for the promotion of the development model, education and protection of children.

Through the humanitarian structure of the Widal Foundation, created in September 2018 with his wife Déborah Linda Loando, he continues his mission to be fully and completely at the service of others by helping to reduce poverty, reaching out to thousands of Congolese who just need a helping hand to get by in life.

On Sunday, May 5, 2019 in the commune of Limeté (Kinshasa) during the official launch of the foundation, Guy Loando explains the objectives and mission which is to accompany the most vulnerable of Congolese society by training them to become entrepreneurs, in collaboration with local, national and international partners that can provide vocational training and grant microcredits to members.
