NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, August 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Kentucky native Branden Martin's debut album 001 is out now. This 13-track album features five co-penned award-winning songs. His most recent release, Drink to Remember, was accompanied by a cinematic video illustrating the difficult reality of losing a loved one. Listen to the album here: <https://bit.ly/3QBzIWz>

"I wrote these songs while I was dealing with some of life's challenges. Though we didn't go into this project with a collective theme in mind, these songs captured a unique period of my life; so, they ended having an underlying theme when we wrapped it up. My previous EPs served as a preface for this new album 001, so this is my Chapter 1."- Branden Martin

About Branden Martin

Branden Martin is a singer with a big, soulful voice and refreshingly retro sound. Branden was featured on NBC's The Voice Season 12, giving him a strong start in music. He built his chops performing in local bars and music venues, opening for artists such as Jason Michael Carroll, RaeLynn, Mark Chesnutt, Confederate Railroad, David Allan Coe and The Steel Woods. His brand of music draws rave reviews earning him dedicated fans who only show up for raw talent and hard work.

Branden Martin is a seasoned veteran of country music. Writing vulnerable, authentic songs about real life, this Kentucky native is a self-taught guitarist who never considered compromising his roots to find success. He found an opportunity to follow his passion in 2014 when he was convinced to compete in the "Hoedown in the Holler," an annual, homegrown country music festival in Kentucky with a legacy of launching acts like Morgan Wallen & Dylan Scott. He competed against highly experienced musicians and won.

In between festivals, opening for major label artists and playing honky-tonks, Branden released his hit singles Drink To Remember (2021), accompanied by a cinematic video, and Drunk Again (2020) alongside other EP projects.
