

Free Wheelchair Mission Welcomes Finance Leader to Board of Directors

IRVINE, CA, USA, August 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Free Wheelchair Mission, a faith-based, humanitarian, nonprofit organization that has distributed 1.3 million wheelchairs in 94 developing countries around the world, welcomes Mark Hedstrom to its board of directors as its treasurer.

“Mark Hedstrom is a wonderful addition to our board with his vast expertise in the financial sector and a true heart for our mission,” said Stuart Rattray, chair of the organization’s board of directors. “We look forward to his leadership as the organization continues to enhance its already-strong financial position.”

Hedstrom, now retired, brings more than 40 years of experience in the financial sector. He was part of Colony Capital, Inc. (now Digital Bridge Group) for 27 years, where he served as the Executive Vice President, CFO, and COO. He also previously worked at Ernst & Young, Castle Pines Land Company, and The Koll Company after graduating from the University of Colorado.

“We are grateful for Mark’s support over the years and look forward to having him serve as treasurer on the board to guide our mission in this new capacity,” said Nuka Solomon, CEO of Free Wheelchair Mission.

Hedstrom is an active member of his local community and has recently served on the board of elders at his church, St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. Both he and his wife, Karen, have been supporters of Free Wheelchair Mission for more than five years.
