

B2BTE Partners with Global Funding Organization to Offer Interest-Free Credit Lines to Entrepreneurs & Businesses

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, August 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- B2BTE \(Business-to-Business Trade Exchange\) is privileged to announce that it has partnered with a new type of funding service that provides businesses and projects with the funding they need at the lowest cost available, and with no interest charged on the money. This makes B2BTE's offerings an ideal option for businesses and projects that need funding but don't want to pay high interest rates.

"As we head into a volatile economic environment," says a spokesperson for B2BTE, "businesses of all sizes have never been more in need of capital. Our partners offer what we feel is the lowest cost for money, especially when it is challenging to obtain. Whether it's for a real estate project, or a store, or a large commercial operation, it is our privilege to offer access to underused funding solutions that all businesses need so they are better equipped to weather uncertainty."

Approved clients get access to the credit they request, whereupon they can use it to make purchases, payments and investments towards their project. Clients will be supported by a dedicated team of account managers, lawyers and banking professionals; in B2BTE's words, "providing the most comprehensive toolset of solutions to any business's financial challenges." Businesses with the experience but needing of capital can more easily break into new markets, thanks to the experience and solutions of the global organization with which B2BTE has partnered.

The specialty of B2BTE and its partners & affiliates is to provide options for Interest-Free trade credit/funding/financing/credit lines to small and medium businesses, and especially those denied credit by the banks. Members can submit their business information at apply.B2BTE.net to make the first step towards securing their zero-interest funding.

At the time of writing (August 2022), membership benefits also include:

Buy/set up/upgrade production equipment, machines, an entire manufacturing plant, turnkey factory, etc. for no extra cost.

Get high tech equipment, management and marketing experience, and get experienced business consultants for no extra cost.
