Covid-19 Scenario:

Offshore Oil & Gas Paints and Coatings Market Growth

- Production facilities of offshore oil & gas paints and coatings had been stopped due to lockdown measures and disrupted supply chain across the globe. This impacted the production volumes and the market growth considerably during the Covid-19 pandemic.
- In addition, the ban on import and export activities of offshore oil & gas paints and coatings led to production disruptions.
- Also, the demand from the oil & gas sector decreased considerably due to partial or complete stoppage of daily operations during the lockdown.

However, the demand increased post-lockdown.

The report offers detailed segmentation of the global offshore oil & gas paints and coatings market based on resin, installation, and region.

Based on resin, the epoxy segment accounted for the highest share in 2020, contributing to more than two-fifths of the total share, and is projected to continue its lead position during the forecast period. However, the polyurethane segment is expected to manifest the largest CAGR of 4.6% from 2021 to 2030.
