ROCK HILL, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, August 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- It is almost time for the 2022-2023 Form 2290 deadline which falls on August 31st. This is an important deadline for drivers of trucks weighing 55,000 pounds or more. These drivers are required to have a current Stamped Schedule 1 and the only way to obtain one is to file Form 2290. This Stamped Schedule 1 helps a driver of a qualifying vehicle obtain tags and their vehicle registration.

If a vehicle with this qualifying weight drives less than 5,000 miles a year or less than 7,500 miles if it is used for agricultural purposes this vehicle is considered suspended and there will be no tax owed to the IRS. If there is no tax owed to the IRS then this vehicle is considered to be suspended but Form 2290 still needs to be filed for this vehicle.
