

BeMotion Inc to Expand and Accelerate the Commercialization of the DCN Vending and Marketplace Technology

BeMotion Inc to Expand the Innovative and Intelligent DCN Vending and Marketplace Technology Worldwide.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, August 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BeMotion Inc is preparing to roll out the DCN Vending throughout its existing distribution network. The initial markets are transit hubs, healthcare, and schools across North America and expanding at the FIFA World Cup Qatar 2022 event to install the non-contact innovative vending technology.

BeMotion Inc is pleased to announce it has agreed with HIT Holdings Inc to accelerate the commercialization of its advanced innovative digital vending platform. BeMotion will invest $1.8 Million as a combination of services and capital equipment into HIT and DCN to fulfill and expand their current expansion.

We don't sell software, we deliver success”

BeMotion Inc

This investment represents a significant step toward the vision of intelligent vending machines and provides a solution to last-mile product distribution's rapidly shifting retail landscape. DCN is reshaping where and how consumers purchase products.

BeMotion has one of the most advanced vending technologies in the market and the IT expertise necessary to exploit commerce and digital marketing capabilities. We are excited about our next-generation vending machines. The DCN platform is dynamic, allowing us to expand this solution into new markets around the World.” – said Mr. Alex Lemberg, CEO of BeMotion Inc.

The DCN Vending and Marketplace platform allow users to interact with the DCN-V without contact through their smartphone. It boasts staggering features that benefit retailers, such as a mobile app, product directory, loyalty program, online delivery, digital advertising, and detailed analytics.

We believe that intelligent vending is the future of blockchain. HIT's unique position within crypto & blockchain markets and their strategic distribution relationships within the international market made our choice to acquire HIT Holdings very easy." – said Mr. Hussein AbuHassan, Founder of BeMotion Inc.
