

Understanding the Functioning of Pharmaceutical Supply Chains & Medical Logistics Post Covid-19

A 2-day virtual conference organized by MarketsandMarkets focusing on the pharma supply chain industry.

PUNE, MH, INDIA, August 18, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The pandemic dealt healthcare a huge blow in general but pharmaceutical supply chains & medicinal logistics were some of the hardest hit areas as a result of quarantines, curfews & closures. As most companies resorted to cutting losses & risk mitigation, only a few were able to fall back on well laid contingency plans.

The 3RD ANNUAL MARKETSANDMARKETS WORLD PHARMA SUPPLY CHAIN AND COLD CHAIN LOGISTICS VIRTUAL CONFERENCE scheduled for the 20th- 21st of OCTOBER 2022 will delve deep into the aspects that impacted the efficient functioning of supply chains & drug deliveries, what factors & methods allowed us to overcome challenges during the pandemic while also discussing how fresh regulations being drafted are primed to radically change manufacturing & sourcing from various parts of the globe.

The 2-day, virtual conference allows you to witness in-depth keynotes, real-world use cases & in-depth presentations from leading industry experts, all from the comfort of your couch. A convenient yet enriching opportunity to gauge the pulse of the pharmaceutical supply chain & logistics industry.
