

Google News Approved Outsource IT Today Publisher

Google News recently approved Outsource IT Today distributor. The company is now able to reach a wider range of readers with their articles.

NEW YORK, NY, USA, August 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This month, Outsource IT Today Publisher was accepted into the Google News distribution system. This is an important stage for us in providing our clients with a versatile distribution of their information.

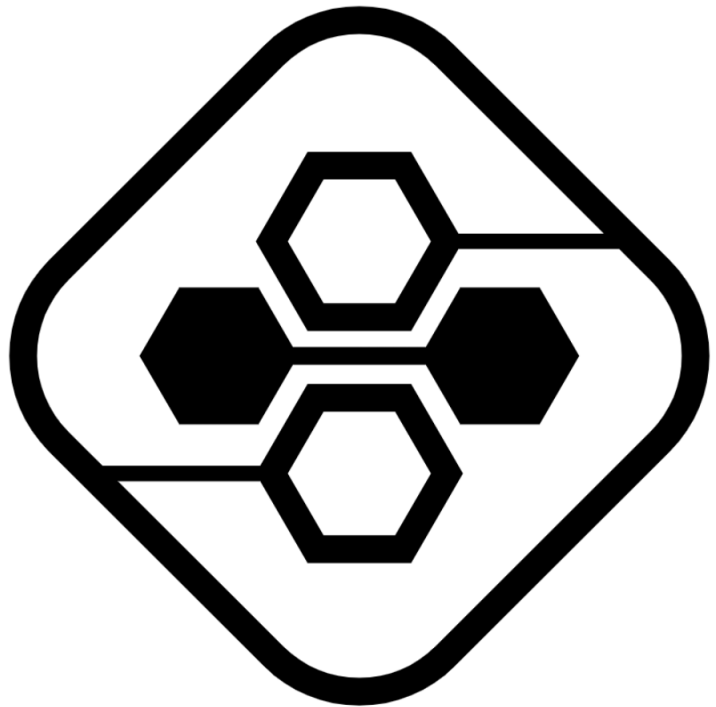

Google News is a search engine for the latest news. It was launched on March 16, 2002 and has grown in popularity since then.

Some benefits of having your business listed in Google News are that it will show up in the search results when somebody searches for your business name or location. Your business will also be able to get more exposure by being featured on the Google News homepage as well as appearing on Google Search Results pages.

To be approved, you must have a website with at least one page that is updated regularly and has an RSS feed available to use.
