

Vancoast Seeds Represents International Seed Banks Providing Growers With Quality Genetics To Meet Consumer Trends

A cannabis seed wholesaler representing the top international seed banks, provides to large and small-scale commercial growers.

BURBANK, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, August 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The cannabis seeds market is predicted to grow exponentially as state legalization advances in the U.S., and in countries across the globe. Vancoast Seeds, a cannabis seed wholesaler representing the top international seed banks, provides large and small-scale commercial growers with a diverse selection of quality genetics to meet consumer trends.

Vancoast Seeds has established partnerships with Crop King Seeds, Sonoma Seeds, Mary Jane's Garden, Sunwest Genetics, and Beaver Seeds.

The wholesale company currently features over 120 quality cannabis strains with guaranteed germination rates and consistent profiles. The team at Vancoast Seeds takes into consideration the unique agronomic needs and specific market demands of their wholesale customers to ensure a successful grow. By the end of the year, the company plans to triple its seed offerings.

"Though cultivators continue to favor THC percentage when purchasing, we're seeing more demand for auto-flowering varieties, especially at smaller cultivation facilities or in states with significant seasonal changes where multiple harvests are a necessity," explained Vancoast Seeds CEO, Landra De.

Vancoast Seeds is a cannabis seed wholesaler representing the top international seed banks. The company has over 120 quality cannabis strains with guaranteed germination rates and consistent profiles.

Each seed bank offers its own collection of regular, feminized, auto-flowering, and CBD-dominant varieties for businesses to choose from.

Through the wholesale program at Vancoast Seeds, customers receive an 80% germination guarantee.

“Vancoast Seeds is committed to the success of our wholesale business partners. Our goal is to help bridge the gap between supply and consumer, making it easier for growers to fine tune their genetics for specific product portfolios,” said De.

Recently, there has been an increasing demand for Hash Plant and Crown Royal cultivars at Vancoast Seeds.

These produce more resin, making them ideal for concentrate production. According to data firm, Headset, concentrates make up 8.3% of the U.S. cannabis market share, but this number is expected to grow as more experienced cannabis users seek higher potency products. The company’s strong understanding of consumer buying trends as well as industry-specific agronomic factors, allows Vancoast Seeds to anticipate and serve evolving market interests.
