share is expected to grow from $235.48 billion in 2021 to $242.04 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 2.8%. The growth is mainly due to the companies resuming their operations and adapting to the new normal while recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The pork meat industry growth is expected to reach $258.39 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 1.6%. The growing food and beverage industry is expected to drive the growth of the pork meat market in the coming years.

Pork Meat Market Trends

Plant-based pork meat is a key trend gaining the popularity in the pork meat market. Plant-based pork is a pig replacement created with heme (or "haem" in British English), an iron-containing molecule obtained from plants that resemble blood. In recent years, a growing amount of data has linked meat consumption to ailments such as heart disease, cancer, and diabetes. So, people can reduce their weekly pork intake by introducing plant-based foods into their diet, boosting their overall health in the process. For example, in September 2020, Impossible Foods, a US based company that produces plant-based substitutes for meat products launched plant-based pork 'Impossible Sausage' in Hong Kong.
