

Harvest Christian University: New University On The Block

USA, August 22, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Harvest Christian University, a royal accredited post secondary institution, was founded in 2010 by its president Dr. Carl Robinson. Its home is in the city of Dallas, Texas; it is an exempt charity supported through philanthropic and humanitarian efforts. It began awarding honorary doctorates to notable figures in 2019 who have made contributions to their industry and found their success having a global reach but also to those who haven't been fully recognized for their tenure, accolades, and impact to whom they served.

In 2019's Fall Masterclass graduation, 16 people received their honorary doctorates and 18 people were awarded chaplaincy that have international recognition to serve within both the public and private marketplace. The chaplaincy program has sent commissioned chaplains to serve in times of crisis on local, national, and international levels. In 2020, HRM of the Kingdom Hawaii, Dr. Edmund Keli'i Paki Silva, Jr. became the Royal Chancellor for Harvest Christian University.

In April 2022, Dr. William L. Benson was appointed the Board of Regents Chairman for Harvest Christian University.
