

Bayou Graphics Launches Custom Wall Graphic Design and Print Service

HOUSTON, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bayou Graphics, a renowned graphic design company, has recently launched a design and print service that allows customers to design wall murals. The graphics on these murals are customizable, designed entirely by customers or with collaboration with the company's team of experts, and can feature anything from life-like images, animations, art, to plain words and numbers. This makes them versatile, and suitable for use in both residential and commercial places for furnishing walls, or promoting marketing and advertising campaigns.

The service provides multiple design and print options of custom wall murals for installation on a wide range of different surfaces. For interior walls, Bayou offers a custom printed interior wall option which produces graphics of custom design and size. These graphics can be made to fit the size of entire walls and are perfect for furnishing the interiors of a room. They can be used in gyms, shops, and other business spaces to highlight powerful graphics for brand or product marketing. For smaller and simpler variations of the interior wall graphics, the service provides custom decals which are more suitable for designing simpler graphics and smaller print sizes.

Tile graphics are specifically made to be applied on tile walls. Then there are custom printed wall graphics that are formulated to be applied in a variety of surfaces including brick, block, concrete, wood, and siding. Their versatility gives them the advantage of being displayable on outside walls with incredible visibility. They can be used as banners for effective advertising campaigns.
