

Press Release: Homegrown North Carolina band, Fern and Tiff, talk broken families, the fatherless and "Fade Away".

"Sometimes things are just hard, for everyone and we all have a tendency to pretend we are ok when we're not. You're not alone in that struggle."

JACKSONVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, August 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- An alternative Christian band, Indie Recording Artists Fernando Rivera and Tiffany Elaine, "Fern and Tiff", based in North Carolina are on a mission to bring their compelling lyrics and soulful journeys to the music stage.

Fern and Tiff

The influence behind their music brings healing, hope, and honesty to their audience. Produced by TeraNote Records in Morehead City, North Carolina, Fern and Tiff talk about their broken families, their fatherless community, abandonment, depression, and their song "Fade Away".

I came from a fatherless family, when I was six months of age my father left. One of my greatest desires was to raise a family that was not broken.”

Tiffany Elaine

Fern and Tiff's heart of their music and mission is to provide connection, community, and a deeper faith in life's journey.

Tiff Elaine stated..."I came from a fatherless family, when I was six months of age my father left. There were many weekends I wanted to see a father who never showed up. One of my greatest desires was to raise a family that was not broken. For many years I dealt with abandonment, loneliness, and depression. The healing on the journey came, but it wasn't until years later did I find my healing in Jesus, my music, and my trust."

Fade Away

I'm so sick of pretending that everyday I'm ok.

Each and every day I'm reminded of all my pain.

Looking at my life how did I even get here?

I pray I'll find my way.

I don't want to fade away. I don't want to slip away.

I just need to know that tomorrow's gonna be okay.

I don't want to fade away dreaming of yesterday.

I just need to know that tomorrow's gonna be okay.

Be okay

Everyday I wonder how it got this way

As a little girl I never dreamed life would be this way

People tell me that everything's going to be okay.

I can't wait til I see that day.

Tiff Elaine concluded..."Never let anyone tell you that you can't do something. Our music inspires by the naturality for us in our journeys to have ups and downs in life and from day to day our perspective can change. Our music brings Jesus and the healing balm to the souls of many who have felt disconnected. We provide an outlet, a safe haven in our music."

With the outstanding professional talents of Fern and Tiff, both accomplished recording artists and members of CMA and BMA songwriters, this fall 2022 tour brings what Fern states.."Music, family, and God are what keeps me going and I'd love to share that with the world".
