two new deals this month, marking its first and second franchise locations. The first agreement was finalized for a territory in Daphne, Alabama and is owned by Dr. Charmaine Glass and Trenita Moore. The second territory finalized was for Desoto, Texas and is owned by Sherrilyn Williams.

The Michigan-based company is seeking to expand nationally. It first began its journey in franchise development in 2019, a decade after its flagship operation launched. The brand also offers physical therapy services and customized Alzheimer's care.

Franchise owners can expect hands-on training within the corporate territory plus initial training within their location.
