

Exlites Holdings International Inc. Announces Installation of Our Aftermarket Electric Vehicle Range Extender on a Tesla

TAMPA, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, August 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Exlites Holdings International Inc. (OTC PINK: EXHI), a company focused on innovative consumer products, today announced it is in the process of installing a final prototype of its aftermarket electric vehicle range extender on a Tesla. EXHI in partnership with Evatech Power Inc. has made great strides to extend the charging range of electric vehicles. For this technology, Evatech Power Inc and EXHI have several patent pendings.

Evatech Power Inc. has diligently been working to refine the electric vehicle range extender and has now reached the step where it can be added to an electric vehicle for final testing, marketing, and production. Evatech is in the final stages of installation on a Tesla.

"This is an exciting time for the company and the electric vehicle range-extending technology. We are looking forward to successfully completing this phase and stepping into the next one where we can get products in the field and on electric vehicles helping increase charging ranges of electric vehicles all over the world." Stated Mark Julian, President of EXHI.
