

Find Quality After-School Care at Phase Family Center

Now Find The Quality After-School Care at Phase Family Center In Alpharetta GA.

ALPHARETTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, August 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phase Family Center is pleased to announce that they provide quality after-school care to ensure children have a place to go until their parents leave work. The after-school program offers a structured schedule to keep children occupied and entertained to ensure consistency.

Phase Family Center operates its after-school program to provide students with a place to stay after school lets out. They will enjoy activities like arts and crafts, sports, cooking, science activities, fitness, and more. The center picks students up from school and safely transports them to the care facility to await their parents. Pickup is available for schools in Alpharetta, Crabapple Crossing, Creek View, Lake Windward, Manning Oaks, New Prospect, Atlanta Academy, and the International Charter School of Atlanta to provide services for many families.

School in the area starts on August 8, 2022. It's time for parents to find after-school care to ensure their children have space at Phase Family Center. The center offers flexible scheduling to ensure every family receives convenient care when required. Parents can contact the center to tour the facility and get answers to questions.

Anyone interested in learning about the quality after-school care program can find out more by visiting the Phase Family Center website or calling.
