There's quite a bit of local demand for chiropractic care, with patients from Columbia regularly traveling to The Joint's other locations around Baltimore & Prince George's County for care.”

Dr. Victor Abadom, Clinic Director

Accessibility for patients seems to be the primary motivation behind the new chiropractic clinic location. Not only does being near the Dobbin Center area eliminate the need for patients to drive far but, as Dr. Victor Abadom, Clinic Director, points out, the proximity to Walmart, Target, The Ale House Columbia, and Starbucks make it easier for patients to incorporate chiropractic care into their daily routine. According to Dr. Abadom, "There's quite a bit of local demand for chiropractic care, with patients from Columbia regularly traveling to The Joint's other locations around Baltimore & Prince George's County for care."

New patients in the Columbia area can text "TJ Columbia" to 56468 to claim your FREE initial visit and reserve a VIP time.

The Joint Chiropractic offers affordable and convenient chiropractic services to help families with lower back pain, migraines, and sciatica pain, among other issues.
