The world fell in love with Fantasia Barrino during Season 3 of American Idol. Fantasia emerged as the show's winner in 2004 and immediately skyrocketed into mainstream stardom. Her debut single, "I Believe," made history on the Billboard Hot 100 list as the first debut single to enter the list in the number one spot. Her debut album, Free Yourself, went certified Platinum and earned the number eight spot on the Billboard 200 list along with three Grammy nominations. Fantasia expanded into acting, winning awards for her Broadway performance playing Celie in The Color Purple musical and role as herself in the autobiography film Life is Not A Fairytale: The Fantasia Barrino Story. Hit single "Bittersweet" on her Back to Me album won Fantasia a Grammy for Best Female R&B Vocal Performance. Fantasia was ranked by VH1 in 2012 as one of the 100 Greatest Women in Music (#32).

Joe's greatest hits include "I Wanna Know," "All the Things" (Your Man Won't Do), "Don't Wanna Be a Player" and more.
