The script of the movie has been written by Devin Fearn, who takes inspiration from philosophical ideas and themes of the Lovecraftian universe. A graduate of the University of California, Los Angeles, Devin Fearn is the recipient of multiple world-recognized awards and nominations at such screenplay competitions as UCLA Screenwriter's Showcase, ScreenCraft Horror Screenplay Competition, and Samuel Goldwyn Writing Awards.

Magic Hour Productions, INC, founded in 2013 by the creators of "On the way to Lovetown" and "22", has announced a slate of film projects consisting of horror stories, historical dramas, and animated content to be released through their worldwide distribution partners.

The slate was revealed on Wednesday at the "Movie Hour" Virtual convention, which Magic Hour Productions, INC reportedly organized. "The goal of our managing team is simple, producing character-driven films in all genres and furthering the art and craft of film," said co-founder John Harney.

The previously announced "With a Whimper," set for production in the winter of 2022, is among the slate. Several short-form animation projects, including the adventure "The Kiln" and "Grandpa," as well as two historical dramas with the working titles "Goring and Souers" and "Nazi Mistress," are also in development.
