Data Bridge Market Research analyses that the carbon fiber market will witness a CAGR of 8.95% for the forecast period of 2022-2029 and is likely to reach the USD 8.00 billion by 2029. Carbon fibers are fibers with a diameter of 5–10 micrometres. Carbon fiber is a lengthy chain of carbon atoms linked together. High stiffness, high temperature tolerance, low weight, good tensile strength, high chemical resistance, and minimal thermal expansion are only a few of the benefits of carbon fibers.

The carbon fiber market is expected to expand in response to rising demand from wind energy industry. Furthermore, expanding demand from satellite and secondary aircrafts parts manufacturing and strict eco-friendly regulations to increase the adoption rate of carbon fibres and related companies in automotive applications are all major market drivers that will accelerate the carbon fiber market growth rate. The market is also growing due to rising utilization of carbon fiber in 3D printing and development of low-cost manufacturing process including plasma oxidation technology.
