Baum Hedlund Aristei & Goldman is a plaintiff’s law firm based in California with several satellite offices throughout the state and Washington, D.C. Since 1973, the firm has earned a reputation for breaking new ground, holding major corporations accountable, influencing public policy, and raising public awareness about important safety issues. Baum Hedlund attorneys have a proven track record of success vigorously litigating on behalf of clients in cases stemming from commercial transportation accidents, pharmaceutical drug and medical device product liability, mass torts (currently focusing on baby food-autism cases, Gardasil auto-immune injuries and Zantac cancer cases), and class actions.

Best Lawyers, which remains one of the country’s leading legal publications, was founded on the principle that the best lawyers know and recognize who the other best lawyers are in their location and practice area. Using an exhaustive peer review process in which tens of thousands of leading lawyers confidentially evaluate their professional peers, only the top 5% of all practicing lawyers in the country are selected by their peers for inclusion in Best Lawyers.
