EINPresswire.com/ -- Los Angeles, CA (August 25, 2022) –

Real Life Records has announced the August 26 release of Texts I Never Sent, album debut by the up-and-coming pop chanteuse Barbara Teresa. The six-track EP features songs that are threaded together by a poetic and vivid journey, filled with hypnotic neo-soul grooves, lush vocals, and bittersweet melodies, and includes the Spanglish single “Overrated”, produced by multiple-award winner Claudia Brant known for her work with Camilla Cabello, JLo, Becky

G, Luis Fonsi, Barbra Streisand, Ricky Martin, Carlos Santana, and Josh Cumbee, who has worked with Janet Jackson, Olivia Rodrigo, Madonna, Chris Brown and Adam Lambert, among others; the song was written by Barbara Teresa, Claudia Brant and Josh Cumbee.

Born in Venezuela, to Colombian and Chilean grandparents, Barbara Teresa has split her time between Caracas and Los Angeles, California where she now resides. She studied music from an early age, influenced by a wide array of musical genres and icons such as Elton John, ABBA, Taylor Swift, Queen, Lorde, and Billy Joel, and became “partners-in-crime” with her beloved guitar while writing her tale songs. “Songwriting is an essential part of my life,” Barbara Teresa explains, “the muse is constantly present in my head whether I’m talking to someone or sound asleep, all I can see, and feel are melodies and words that will become the next song to record!”

Currently, the 19-year-old singer/songwriter is attending Duke University in North Carolina, where she divides her time studying psychology as well as media studies and creating sounds that are uniquely her own for the new chapter in her musical life.

Texts I Never Sent Part 1 and Part 2 as well as the promotional single “Overrated” are currently available in all digital platforms including Spotify and Apple Music, subsequently the full EP will be released on August 26, 2022.
