Key Trends In The Cloud Billing Market

Advancements in technology are shaping the cloud billing industry outlook. Major companies operating in the cloud billing sector are focused on developing technological solutions for cloud billing to accelerate business growth. For instance, in November 2020, Salesforce, an American cloud-based software company launched Revenue Cloud, based on multi-cloud billing technology to help companies to track revenue lifecycle. Revenue Cloud, which is part of Salesforce Customer 360 platform, combines the existing partner relationship management (PRM), CPQ and Billing, and B2B commerce solutions into a single solution for the firm.

Overview Of The Cloud Billing Market

The cloud billing market consists of sales of cloud billing services by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that are engaged in the providing of cloud-based billing solutions. The term cloud billing refers to a combination of cloud computing and electronic billing. Several firms are broadening their horizons by implementing an on-premises billing infrastructure. Cloud
