As per The Business Research

Company's "Community Oncology Services Global Market Report 2022", the community oncology services market size is expected to decline from $70.06 billion in 2021 to $70.56 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 0.7%. The slow decline is attributed to COVID-19 restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. The community oncology services market share is expected to reach $74.87 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 1.5%. The lower-cost care in community oncology centers is anticipated to boost the community oncology services industry growth.

Market Size, Trends, And Global Forecast 2022-2026

Overview Of The Community Oncology Services Market

The community oncology services market consists of sales of community oncology services by entities (organizations, sole traders and partnerships) of health practitioners who practice community oncology as a private physician-owned business not part of a hospital or academic or medical teaching institution. The community oncology practice may be only a single oncologist, with one office and a support staff of physician extenders, nurses, pharmacists, or pharmacy technicians and other staff. Only goods and services traded between entities or sold to end consumers are included.
