

BlocqX Launches The X NFT Collection with Former Activision/Blizzard Lead Game Designer Lieutenant Dan

The future of NFT collections and Blockchain Gaming will be transformed forever.

SAINT PETERSBURG, FL, USA, August 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BlocqX announced today that they have been in development since Jan 2022 to produce and launch a new NFT collection and future gaming experience with a dedicated and fully interoperable metaverse.

The X NFT

The project is built by top game & VR designers, blockchain developers, and various leaders from the Data, AdTech, & Marketing industries.

We had to keep this project under tight wraps and in the lab until we were ready to launch the first phase - The X NFT Collection.”

Sean Marra, Executive Producer of The X NFT and CEO of blocqX

Phase one starts with a private pre-sale to exclusive Big Daddy Unlimited members. We believe the X NFT collection is a major leap forward and evolution of the Blue Chip NFT so we took a completely different path in how we launched this collection”, said Marra.

Built on the Unreal 5 Engine, The X is an immersive NFT VR experience where the owner of the digital assets will actually become their NFT and evolve with it over time through game play and character engagement.

The X NFT collection is combining history, digital collectibles, gameplay, and virtual events and is the brainchild of former Activision Blizzard lead game designer Dan Diallo aka: Lt. Dan.

“I’ve dreamed of being a game designer since I could move my thumbs. The X NFT is the realization of that dream. I couldn't be more honored and humbled to finally have like-minded collectors with shared 2A values and a passion for history and gaming.”

The X NFT Genesis Collection offers 10 Legendary Commanders such as George Washington, Leonidas, Joan of Arc, and Sitting Bull. All Legendary Commanders were hand selected by the developers and chosen for their skills and success in both web2 and web3 business. Every Legendary Commander purchased their respective NFT for a min of $25,000.

In addition to commanders, there will be 6,500 Generative Legionnaires that will have a range of rare and ultra-rare traits of one of the nine legendary commanders. Delivering a truly matchless Triple A studio quality art that mashes up past, present, and future weapons, gear, and storytelling.
