The Business Research Company's Red Wine Global Market Report 2022 - Market Size, Trends, And Global Forecast 2022-2026

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK,
August 31, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --
As per The Business Research Company's "Red Wine Global Market Report 2022", the red wine market is expected to grow from $94.63 billion in 2021 to $102.72 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 8.6%. The growth in the market is mainly due to the companies rearranging their operations and recovering from the COVID-19 impact, which had earlier led to restrictive containment measures involving social distancing, remote working, and the closure of commercial activities that resulted in operational challenges. As per TBRC's red wine market outlook the market is expected to reach $127.03 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 5.5%. The increasing health awareness among consumers is expected to propel the growth of the red wine market going forward.

Key Trends In The Red Wine Market

The growing popularity of organic products is a key trend gaining popularity in the red wine market. Organic wine is a product that has been certified as organic by the government. Organic wine production must follow strict criteria that cover everything from pesticide usage to land management to storage and preservation.

Overview Of The Red Wine Market

The red wine market consists of sales of red wine by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) which is produced by crushing and fermenting dark-colored, whole grapes. Red wine is a wine with a primarily red color that results from the natural pigment found in the peels of dark-colored grapes during fermentation. The alcohol content of red wine is typically between 12 -15%. Antioxidants abound in red wine, and moderate consumption is good for health.
