

Museum of Illusions Orlando offers private event packages

Unique venue for corporate buyouts, holiday parties, team building events

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, August 29, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- When preparing for a special event, whether it be a holiday party or corporate retreat, the venue is the most important decision. Museum of Illusions Orlando is taking the stress out of your party planning with customizable private event packages.

With over 50 intriguing exhibits and countless optical illusions, Museum of Illusions Orlando is the most interactive and immersive venue your guests will ever experience. The museum offers group buyout options perfect for holiday parties, birthdays, engagement celebrations and other events.

Once you've booked your event, Museum of Illusions Orlando can help you find the vendors needed to make your event a success. The museum has list of suggested vendors and is happy to help source quotes and book. If you want to bring in your own vendors, that's not a problem at all.

From an open bar and passed hors d'oeuvres to a buffet, Museum of Illusions Orlando can accommodate your needs. It offers entirely customizable packages and will work directly with you to ensure the event goes off without a hitch. To make the space your own, you're welcome to add decorations, bring in floral arrangements or hang more lights.

If you're looking to bring in extra entertainment, Museum of Illusions Orlando can accommodate live music, a DJ, a magician/illusionist and more. Event hosts can have access to the museum's speaker system and choose the soundtrack of their celebration.

Did a party really happen if there were no photos? The museum has endless photo ops throughout the venue that will leave people scratching their heads as they view impossible pictures. Not only will your photographer be able to capture memorable shots, guests can easily get fun pictures with their own cellphones.

"Museum of Illusions Orlando takes pride in being a quality event partner. We understand how difficult the planning process can be, which is why we offer customizable packages and assist with getting your vendors in line," said Marc Gregory Tipton, sales and marketing director. "Most importantly, we want you to actually be able to enjoy the event you're hosting!"

Museum of Illusions is able to be rented out by the hour. The 7,200-square-foot venue can host up to 200 guests. To request more information or to book your event, click here.
