

Digitalage Delivers a one-two punch with D-Podcast™ added to their slate

Digitalage has developed D-Podcast™ on the heels of announcing D-Comix™. A One Stop Shop for Podcast Creators.

TEMECUAL, CA, USA, August 30, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hop-on announced today that Digitalage has developed D-Podcast™ on the heels of announcing D-Comix™. A One Stop Shop for Podcast Creators.

Peter Michaels, Chairman of Digitalage says, "We want Digitalage to be a center for all creators, including video and audio podcasters. We recognize that podcasters want to extend their brand, expand their audience and are intrigued how Digitalage's Web3 social media network can be integrated into a podcast service. This makes us different from other web2 platforms. Even though Twitter announced podcasts, they are hiding it under the Spaces tab, which does not make sense. Hence, our naming convention clearly labelling and branding our service."

We have created an intuitive step-by-step podcast creation process for both novices and pros alike. "

Peter Michaels, Chairman of Digitalage

Not only can users find their favorite podcasters, but creators will have access to Digitalage's creator tools to create their podcasts from video capture to editing and music integration.

Robust features include screen-sharing, separate track recording for video-audio of more than five guests including remotes, audio enhancing, script assistant, and speech recognition for automatic transcription in up to 80 languages, to call out a few.

Michaels adds, "We have created an intuitive step-by-step podcast creation process for both novices and pros alike. We will provide helpful tips, videos and articles to help you along your creation path."

D-Podcast

In D-Podcast™, creator's access to Digitalage's paywall features and can create their own subscription tiers, a fair and equitable business model with complete transparency. Sharing and notification features access Digitalage's social media network to amplify promotion. You can easily add branding elements, create trailers or promos, and add your own merchandise store.

D-Podcast™ has trademark and provisional patents pending.
