About Florida Film House

Florida Film House is a team of young, passionate filmmakers working together to tell the stories of their communities to their generation. We have filmed over 1,000 productions together as a team, while vertically integrating our business allowing us to underwrite most of our expenses, and positioning us with the ability to develop content and films efficiently.

About Urban Digital Streaming - UDS.TV

UDS is an AVOD platform that streams live and curated content via multiple devices maximizing the exposure of the content and the advertising revenue capabilities.

UDS provides content creators access to their own dashboard allowing them to see how their content is monetizing and the ability to cash out on their own setup wallet. The process encourages content creators and influencers to upload and market their content on UDS.tv for better and easier monetization vs competitors.
