"For years we've attended the IACP Conference and Expo and love the opportunity to meet with law enforcement and discuss ways to improve their team's communication." Says Nick Hohman, President of Waveband Communications. "It's important for law enforcement to have a reliable communication plan that set them up for success."

The International Association of Chiefs of Police Expo will host over 600 vendors showcasing products and services to assist the law enforcement profession. The event will be held over four days with education, networking, training, and an exhibit hall. The event will allow more than 16,000 public safety professionals the opportunity to learn new techniques, advance their careers, and equip their departments with success.

Waveband Communications will feature various two-way radio accessories that will enhance law enforcement communication including,

- Kevlar Reinforced Speaker Microphones
- Radio batteries that will last all shift
- Surveillance kits for covert communication
- And more.

Waveband Communications is a two-way radio accessory manufacturer supplying radio equipment to law enforcement agencies across the country. The radio accessories are compatible with the largest names in public safety radios including Motorola, Kenwood, and L3Harris.
